

My 60 Day Generosity Commitment

I believe that everything I have is ultimately a gift from God.

_____ Initial

I believe that God wants me to be a wise manager of the resources He entrusted to me.

_____ Initial

In response to God's generosity to me, my generosity commitment to God is: (check any that apply)

- To not be such a tight-wad.
- To make giving a priority.
- To regularly give _____ percent of my income to God's work.
- To look for opportunities to give extravagantly.
- To regularly pray "Lord, what do you want me to do with your money?"

In the next 60 days my generosity commitment will be seen in the following ways:

A specific way I am trusting God financially in the next 60 days is:

A fear about giving that I am entrusting to God for the next 60 days is: (if applicable)

Addressing Specific Barriers to Generosity (Fill out this section if applicable)

Lord, I am in bondage with unsecured debts. I believe you want me to be free. Please help. _____
Initial

My plan for becoming debt free is: (check any that apply)

- Attending Financial Peace University
- Seeking out a Financial Mentor
- Developing and keeping a budget
- Professional Financial Counseling
- Other _____

Lord, I am in bondage to a self-destructive habit. I believe you want me to be free. Please help. _____
Initial

My plan for breaking the power of addiction in my life is: (check any that apply)

- Confessing my addiction
- Finding a Support Group
- Professional Christian Counseling
- Other _____

Please fold and seal this letter in the provided envelope with your name on it. If you address the envelope, it will be mailed to you on the week of March 27, 2011. If you do not address the envelope, the envelope can be picked up on Sunday, March 27 or Sunday, April 3, 2011.